

THE SOUL MEN

The ever-popular Blues Brothers tribute show. Two guys who obviously love Jake and Elwood, strutting and singing their stuff faithfully. A brilliant, high-energy show.

Anyone can don a pork-pie hat and sunglasses - but that definitely doesn't make them a Blues Brother... These guys have watched, loved and studied the movie since it first hit the big screen in 1980 (yes 1980!) and it shows. The essence of a really top Blues Brothers show is the amount of smiles that it delivers to its audience. Every song a hit in its own right. Every one a foot-tapping, sing-along, smile-along killer. These two guys really know how to perform a tribute show. They are always re-booked and make sure that every single member of their audience enters that stage of a willing suspension of disbelief to become part of a stupendous party.

Playlist:

Soul Man
Sweet Home Chicago
Everybody Needs Somebody to Love
Shake a Tail Feather
Gimme Some Lovin'
Jailhouse Rock
And Many More!